Tasting Notes

“The Delivery” shows dense and juicy black, red, and blue fruits in the nose against a backdrop of clean minerality, leather, and a subtle underpinning of vanilla, violets, and spice. Tart red cherries, chocolate, and earth are prominent on the palate leading to a long finish. This wine is full bodied and complex yet also maintains a liveliness and freshness that is so often missing in this style of wine. This stunning cuvee should be on everyone’s to-buy list.
