Tasting Notes

The nose on this vintage is particularly opulent with aromas of cinnamon and nutmeg, lush red and black fruit, and a perfume of violet and Madagascar vanilla. A cascade of black cherry and currant washes over the palate, along with hints of red berries that provide some lift to the ripe fruit dominant profile. Mouth watering acid follows, giving this wine charm and personality that's atypical of such forward styles. Ultra fine tannins and a silky mouthfeel lead to a long finish, resulting in a wine that is ultimately powerful, balanced, and seductive.
