Tasting Notes

The nose displays a rich perfume of violets, red and black fruit, vanilla, and savory herbs with sweet spice notes and a freshness suggestive of the cool maritime winds that reach inward to the Stag's Leap District. The palate is lush and juicy showing blackberry, cherry, and currant flavors enlivened by mouthwatering acidity and crushed mineral elements which provide balance, depth, and a tension that serves as a stretched canvass for earthier notes like tanned leather, cigar box, and black pepper.
