Tasting Notes

Aromas of white peach, apple, and crisp Anaheim pepper liftoff from the glass with stony, mineral driven precision, followed by a tart and refreshing array of tropical citrus fruits that sparkle on the pallet. Perceptible salinity makes the mouth water and immediately beckons another sip. This wine is lively and vigorous but never thin, providing a wonderfully creamy texture and phenolic pallet weight that provides a platform for so much energy.

Napa Sauvignon Blanc is often thought of as a broadly appealing wine for any occasion. This wine is that in spades, but also one that shows deference to a more sophisticated buyer.
